The Dy of Edn says that a Drawing Master is unnecessary in the Mysore Normal School, and that one is (urgently) wanted in the Bangalore High School. As he does not send that the man who can be (from the Mysore Schl) spared is incompetent, there is no reason why his services should not be transferred to the school where they are wanted. If the Drawing Master of the Kolar Normal School deserves promotion I think that separate proposals should be submitted

SIR

I have the honour to inform you that the appointment of a second Art Instructor is sanctioned for the Government Normal School, Mysore, in Government Order No 5682-3/Edn 142-09-2 dated 5th January 1910 has enabled the Headmaster to divide the work of the Drawing Master between the two Art Instructors who are well up in Drawing. This arrangement has set free the services of a Drawing Master attached to the Normal School, Mysore on the other hand the High School section of the Bangalore High School is in urgent need of

of a Drawing Master I request that Government may be pleased to permit me to utilise the provision of Rs 40/- now available in the Mysore Normal School to give promotion to Mr R Govindarajalu Naidu, Drawing Master of the Kolar Normal School and to appoint a new Drawing master on Rs 25/- to the Bangalore High School - Mr R Govindarajalu Naidu has been getting Rs 25/- since 1st September 1906 and has worked satisfactorily -

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
